

Old Town Court

“ A unique reconstruction of a historically valuable building in the center of Prague. ”

This singular residential complex offering luxury apartments in Old Town was created by renovating and completing construction on a complex comprised of three historical buildings with an interior courtyard and constructing a new apartment building. The architectural goal was to create a unique space for living while doing the utmost to preserve the character of the location, whose current appearance dates back to the mid-19th century. The complex offers 1 studio and 12 luxury apartments with floor areas ranging from 131 to 412 m². In serious disrepair, the historically protected buildings underwent comprehensive reconstruction, which included preserving roof and ceiling beams, renovating or replicating windows, taking measures against ground moisture, and repairing facades.
